Presentations:

“Credit Unions ARE Mortgage Lenders!”

The Honorable Rodney E. Hood, Vice Chairman, National Credit Union Administration

The Colorado CUREN is delighted to welcome Mr. Hood who has served on the NCUA board since his appointment in November 2005 in the capacity of Vice Chairman. Mr. Hood will enlighten our group on credit unions and their growing role in the mortgage lending industry. Detailing affordable and sustainable mortgage lending practices and the critical need of helping our members understand the responsibilities of homeownership.

“Updates from the Colorado Division of Financial Services”

Chris Myklebust, Commissioner, Colorado Division of Financial Services

Mr. Myklebust will be speaking to our group on regulatory changes that are taking place in mortgage lending impacting us in the state of Colorado. In addition he will share what the division is looking for when examining our mortgage lending area and what directives he is giving to examiners.

“Loss Mitigation and the impacts on Credit Unions, CMG and the state of Colorado”

Joe Dillon, SVP/Co-General Manager, CMG Mortgage Insurance

Bill Walker, VP National Sales, CMG Mortgage Insurance

Chris Eckenroad, Manager Loss Mitigation and Customer Service, CMG Mortgage Insurance

A truly award winning cast from CMG MI will be here to share with our group their expertise and advice in several key areas of our business. Chris has his finger on the pulse of loss mitigation strategies and will be sharing with our group what other credit unions are doing to work with their members through these tumultuous times. Bill brings his street savvy approach to understanding the performance of our own Colorado marketplace and the risks we are facing. Lastly Mr. Joe Dillon will provide insight into CMG MI's position in the marketplace.

The venue and the breakfast buffet: (8:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m.) is graciously provided by Bellco Credit Union, Ent Federal Credit Union, and Air Academy Federal Credit Union.
